

FLORIDA HOSPICE

& PALLIATIVE CARE ASSOCIATION

Important information about _____:

Hospice providers have a legal obligation to only share patient information with those who have been authorized by the patient. If you would like to receive updates about your loved one's condition, you will need to contact whoever has legal authority to receive that information. If you are an immediate family member and you are not receiving any information on your loved one, speak to a case manager at the hospice and see if there is a solution.

For more information about the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPPA) visit <http://www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/>.

Name of organization providing care: _____

My loved one is receiving care at: Residence Nursing Home Assisted Living Facility Hospital
Hospice Inpatient Unit Hospice Residential Facility

Name of facility (if applicable): _____

Address: _____

Name of person legally designated to make health care decisions: _____

Power of Attorney: _____

Health Care Surrogate: _____

Financial: _____

Hospice providers offer grief and bereavement counseling to family members for up to one year after the loss of their loved one. Hospice providers offer grief and bereavement counseling to family members for up to one year following the loss of a loved one. Contact your local hospice provider to find what services are available in your area.

If you would like more information about hospice and palliative care or to find a provider in your area, visit www.floridahospices.org or call 800-282-6560.