Hospice & Palliative Medicine Practice Review Course October 30-31, 2010

Course Description

The Hospice & Palliative Medicine Practice Review Course is for physicians interested in preparing for ABMS certification in Hospice & Palliative Medicine (HPM), needing a comprehensive review and update on current practice. It is also for physicians interested in reviewing the practice of hospice and palliative medicine, and assessing their competency in the 8 domains of Hospice & Palliative Medicine used for the Hospice & Palliative Medicine Certification Exam blueprint, including case-based sample test questions. The conference will provide a plan to prepare for the ABMS certification exam and provide sessions reviewing the 8 domains of practice.

The Center for Hospice, Palliative Care, and End-of-Life Studies and its partners are not involved in developing the ABMS certification examination and have no specific knowledge of the actual questions that will be included or excluded from the examination. Our planning committee developed the course content after reviewing all pertinent information, including the examination outline, the Medical Content Categories and the concepts specified by ABMS. The second ABMS hospice and palliative medicine certification exam is scheduled for November 16, 2010.

Course Objectives

- 1) Review the following domains of Hospice and Palliative Medicine Practice:
 - Approach to Care
 - Psychosocial and Spiritual Considerations
 - Impending Death
 - Grief and Bereavement
 - Medical Management
 - Communication and Teamwork
 - Ethical and Legal Decision-Making
 - Prognostication and Natural History of Serious Illness
- 2) Use case studies to discuss and answer questions related to the 8 domains of practice.
- 3) Provide a plan to prepare for the ABMS Board Certification Hospice & Palliative Medicine exam.
